Much like a blanket envelops you under its weight, the Abriç seating collection is wrapped up within its upholstery and cushions for a cozy look inspired by covers. Designed by Silvia Caffal for Boss, the pieces consist of a wooden structure that's thoughtfully upholstered to reveal what's underneath. The combination of warm wood and its soft, horizontally stitched exterior make for a universally appealing place to sit back and unwind. Abriç is available in 1-, 2-, and 3-seater versions, with the addition of a chaise lounge and an ottoman.
